

HISTORY

On December 18, 2000 Dr. Martin Wesch, who was then an associate with a large international law firm in Stuttgart, and Dr. Axel Buchenroth, who was then working with another law firm in Stuttgart and was also still writing his doctoral thesis, together decided to form a new law firm of their own. Within the following few months a partnership agreement was concluded, office rooms in Kernerstr. 43 >Am Schuetzenplatz< were found and completely equipped, so that the new law firm could start its business on April 1, 2001.

Shortly after, Dr. Susanne Wesch, who was then also working with a large international law firm in Stuttgart as an associate, joined the two partners. Since then numerous well versed attorneys and specialists work with Wesch & Buchenroth, some as of counsels, and cooperations with other law firms but also management and business consultants, also dealing internationally, were formed.
