According to the German Federal Code for the Legal Profession (Bundesrechtsanwaltsordnung - BRAO) attorneys are obliged to have professional indemnity insurance covering at least 250.000,00 €. For further details see § 51 BRAO.

Liability claims relating to foreign countries are not covered, if they do not meet the following requirements:

- a) claims before European Courts and Turkey; this also applies to domestic writs of execution (§ 722 German Civil Procedure - ZPO);
- b) violation or non-observance of European Law including laws of Turkey;
- c) actions completed in a foreign country of Europe and/or Turkey.

Insurance coverage for actions completed via foreign subsidiaries, foreign offices or branches whatsoever or by companies abroad via cooperation agreement is only given by special agreement.

Claims relating to punishment, especially punitive or exemplary damages remain excluded from insurance coverage.
